~HIS Life~

J.C. Phillips was the 5th child born to Robert Lee Davis and Agnes Anne Phillips on August 10, 1962 in Detroit, MI.

J.C. aka “Jake” attended Henry Ford High School In his teenage years. He participated in baseball, basketball, and also football. After high school, Jake started doing odd jobs around the neighborhood to help family and friends. He loved to clean, cook, go fishing, and loved to spend time with his family.

Whenever there was any work around the house that needed to be done, Jake did it without hesitation; from washing dishes to mopping floors to mowing the lawn to painting. Whatever it was, Jake was always quick to lend a helping hand. He loved to dance and have a drink and keep the party going!

J.C. was a cook at Sign of the Beefcarver for 13 years. Cooking was his passion. He also loved to help out his bros working on cars. As he became older, he hung around to help take care of his parent’s day in and day out.

FAMILY

The first people to know you,
The ones who gave you a name
They give you love
And a place to belong;
The root from which you came.
Cherish them while you have them.....
When they're gone it's never the same. – MS MOEM

Bro, I love you and appreciate the journey we shared throughout these years. You've been close to me since birth and we have been through it all together, good times and bad. You was my roll dog. I'm a miss you bro. See you on the other side.—Love Rob
