

*Precious in the sight of the Lord
is the death of his saints.
~Psalm 116:15*

A Precious One

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we love is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home -
Which never can be filled.

And after a lonely heartache
And many a silent tear,
But always a beautiful memory -
Of one we love so dear.

OBITUARY

Clarice Adams was born on December 19, 1954 to the union of George and Roberta Adams. Clarice was the third of five children. Her parents and brother George Jr. preceded her in death.

Clarice received Jesus Christ as her personal Savior at an early age. Clarice believed in the Lord and had posted on her wall, "Good morning this is God speaking. I will handle all of your troubles today. I will not need your help. Have a nice day."

Clarice enjoyed, dancing (the hustle), watching BET and Centric Movies, shopping, playing with her nieces, great nieces, nephew and great nephew and she enjoyed playing cards and board games.

Clarice was a graduate of Mackenzie High School and Henry Ford School of Nursing. Clarice worked as a Registered Nurse for several years and had a strong will. Clarice had many friends and was a dedicated member and mentor of a support program which she attended daily.

Clarice transitioned peacefully to the Lord Jesus Christ on July 5, 2018. She leaves to cherish her memory: two sisters, Norene (Arthur Everett) and Sharon; one brother, Mark J. (Rosa) Adams Sr.; three nieces, Sarena (Ken) Harris, Angela (Marlon) Winder and Brittany Nicole Adams; one nephew, Mark (Patricia) Adams Jr.; five great-nieces, Kendall Harris, Mackenzie Harris, Amber Winder, Madison Winder and Paloma Adams; one great nephew, Mark J. Adams III; and a host of aunts, cousins, friends and fellowship remembers.
